

CORD - CHINMAYA VIJAYA

KAZA, GUNTUR DISTRICT, ANDHRA PRADESH

Quarterly Report : JAN - MAR 2016

All the children are hale and hearty and agile with their hopes and aspirations for a bright career and life ahead as the Academic Session is coming to a close. This being the last quarter of the Academic Year, all the children are busy preparing for the final examinations of respective classes. This quarter is marked with some important festivals and some days of National importance. Besides, the children actively participate and involve in all the activities at the Ashram making it their real home to live and grow.

JANUARY 2016:

The very first day of the month 1st Jan 2016 being New Year's Day, the children of the Ashram dressed up neatly and exchanged warm greetings with each other. Dr. Sumathi Mukkamala who happened to be on the premises, blessed all the children with new year gifts and joined with them in the New Year Celebrations in the evening.

Every year, on 10th January the guardians and close relatives of all the children are invited to see the children in their best spirits while in the Ashram. This event was organized on the 10th Jan 2016 as well and the close kith and kin of most of the children joined the occasion. This is done every year to give an opportunity to the relatives and close ones of the children to interact with them and the Ashram organizers in a given setting and also helps the children to carry on their bond with their social environs they originally belong to. They were a happy lot to see the children growing in a healthy and clean environment with a determined future of their own choice setting behind their sad past.

On 12th Jan 2016, NRI General Hospital organized a free eye-camp at Chinmaya Vijaya and children having any eye problems were given appropriate guidance and medical help for healthy vision.

The festival of “Sankranthi” was celebrated from 14th to 17th January 2016 with lot of religious fervour by all the children of Chinmaya Vijaya. Special dishes with sweet meats were prepared and served to the children reminding of our age old traditions and culture. Dr Sumathi Amma gave gifts to the workers of the Aashram and sports kits to the children that participated in the ‘Rangoli’ event on this happy occasion. Smt. Mounica and Ms. Sophia from USA visited the Aashram and spent 3 days with the children on the campus. They taught life skills and participated in the games organized for the children.

Republic Day: 26th Jan 2016 -This is one of the National Holidays and a festival for the citizen of India hence it was observed with patriotism and national fervour to instill, inculcate and imbibe in the minds of children the feeling of love towards the Nation. Dr. Narayana Reddy and family from USA visited the Ashram who also presided over as ‘Chief Guest’ on this occasion. He gave his message to the children upon nation building and moral standing.

On 31st January 2016 Society for Rural Scholars conducted a talent examination. 16 children from 5 to 9th class belonging to Chinmaya Vijaya participated in the competitive examination. The results are awaited.

FEBRUARY 2016: The main activities of the month include:

- (1) Dr. Mallikarjuna Rao Garu from USA stayed on the campus and taught the children the techniques of using computers, emailing and internet usage for educational purposes.
- (2) Children underwent ‘Meditation Training’ through out the month where Dr. Sumathi Amma also participated. Smt Swarajya Lakshmi from Hyderabad and Smt. Vani from Mangalagiri organized the Meditation Classes. It is a very helpful event for the children as they are busy preparing for the annual examinations of their school and Board in the following two months.
- (3) The children prepared well for their examinations and fared well in the school examinations. Some of the senior students were busy preparing for the SSC (Class-X) Board Examinations. They performed Saraswathi Puja on the 13th Feb 2016 to bless them with better performance in their SSC Exams.
- (4) The children also got trained in ‘Drawing’. Mr. Martin from Mangalagiri taught and helped the children learn the nuances in drawing.

The Class X students had their preparatory examinations from 4th to 14th February 2016 and understood all the children did well in their examination. Children of Class-II to 8th Class had the unit examinaion from 22nd to 27th Feb – they too did well.

MARCH 2016:

As the academic session is coming to a close and the annual examinations approaching very fast, all the children seriously immersely in their studies for their respective examinations.

On the 5th March the School celebrated the Annual Day in which all the Children from Chinmaya Vijaya enthusiastically participated in all competitions like, Dance, Drama, cultural events, sports and games. Almost all of them won prizes for many of the events they participated.

Eight of the students from Chinmaya Vijaya were awarded certificates and small gifts for putting in best attendance in the school. Those participated in the Cultural Events could also win many prizes.

The festival of 'Shivrathri' was celebrated in all sincerity – the children, staff and workers prayed Lord Shiva for his kind benedictions. The children were taken to Lord Shiva temple in Chinkakani and performed Puja.

SSC Examinations for the senior children began from 21st March 2016. In all 12 students of our Aashram appeared for the Examinations. Dr. AppaRao Mukkamala visited the Aashram during the meantime and blessed the children. He encouraged them with his guidance and hopeful attitude; extended best wishes all the students to fare well in their examinations.

The overall educational performance and grades secured by the students in difference examinations during the academic year are depicted in the attached charts for all the classes from 1 to 10.

Dr. AppaRao said “one should not lose confidence and shall always go foward with a positive mind – then only they can achieve success.” He also said that a planned approach to education and regular study would help the students excell not only in their examinations but would also enable them excell in their Life. Hard work, courage, perseverance together with intelligence will bring laurels to any student – he quipped.

The children thanked him for his kind words and the references from the preachings of Pujya Gurudev Swami Chinmayananda that has given a way for them to brighten up their lives.

==00==